

PRESERVATION'S FOUNDATION:
THE SECRETARY OF INTERIOR
STANDARDS FOR THE TREATMENT OF
HISTORIC PROPERTIES

Learn the history of the Standards and how they apply to Local Historical Commissions, Community Preservation Committees, Planning Boards, and historic home owners.

THURSDAY, MAY 30th at 7:30 p.m.
WESTON POLICE STATION TRAINING ROOM
180 Boston Post Road By-pass

Hosted by the Weston Historical Commission and Presented by Eric Dray, Preservation Consultant

Eric Dray has over 25 years of experience in the preservation field, with a focus on local preservation planning issues. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in History from Brown University and holds both a master's in historic preservation and a law degree from Boston University. He also spent a year mid-career studying urban planning at Harvard University's Graduate School of Design. Mr. Dray has extensive consulting experience with local communities including the preparation of Mass. Historical Commission Inventory Forms, National Register nominations, design review guidelines, town-wide preservation plans, and survey plans. He has also consulted with many community preservation committees, including the preparation of preservation restrictions. In addition to consulting, Mr. Dray was an Adjunct Professor in the Boston University Preservation Studies program where he taught preservation planning. Prior to establishing his consulting business, Mr. Dray worked for six years as Historic District Administrator and Preservation Planner for the Boston Landmarks Commission. Mr. Dray has served as a historic district commissioner in both Cambridge and Provincetown, was Chair of the Provincetown Historical Commission for many years, and was Vice-Chair of the Community Preservation Committee.