1. Welcome - Minutes from Prior Meeting Approved
2. School Updates
 - a. COVID
 - i. There have been no known issues following the transition to mask-optional re: transmission
 - ii. Other adults are now welcome in the building, and speaker and community events are in the process of being planned
 - iii. Hoping to move school assemblies to in-person (hopefully starting in May)
 - iv. Cabinet meeting is scheduled for tomorrow (April 5) to discuss changes:
 1. Changes in cafeteria seating – transition to single/double/triple desks; changes will be made when it feels appropriate; classes will still be kept together, not mixed
 2. Arrival/Dismissal procedures – seem to be working better now than pre-pandemic, so no changes are likely to be made
 - b. School Tours

- i. Planned for Wednesday (April 7) – this will be guided and will not be an “open house” for students to take their parents around
- 3. Community Events – PTO continues to look for ways to bring students together
 - i. Bingo will be coming back!
 - ii. Whole School Picnic
 - iii. Fun day for PK-2nd Grade as well as 3rd Grade
 - iv. Spring Concert
- 4. Member Comments
 - i. Principal Faber noted that Zoom will continue to be utilized as a tool to allow for parental involvement including readers, Principal Coffees, etc.
